

God is There and Holy is That Place

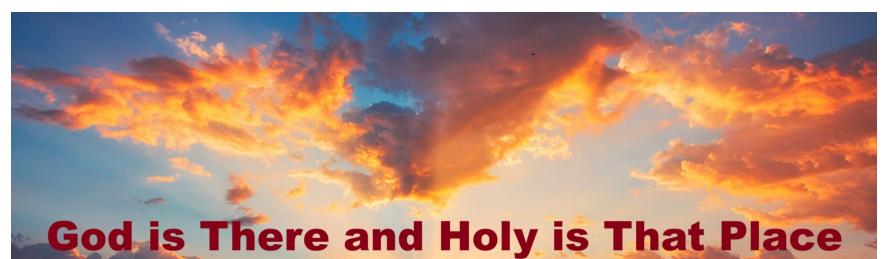

1 Corinthians 14:18-25

Jacob spent the night in a barren place with a rock as a pillow, yet God was there. Here is the exclamation from the patriarch: “Surely the LORD is in this place, and I knew it not...How dreadful is this place! This is none other but the house of God (Bethel)” (Gen. 28:16-17). Moses was at Mt. Sinai with a flock of sheep when suddenly a burning bush caught his attention. The bush was burning with fire but was not consumed. God was in the bush and the ground around was holy (Exodus 3:1-5).

The tabernacle was constructed of ordinary materials. When it was finished, a cloud of glory covered the tent and at night it was illuminated by fire (Exodus 40:34-38). God manifested His holy presence in that place. Likewise, Solomon’s magnificent temple was just an ordinary building until God filled it with His holy presence (1 Kings 8:10-11).

When the fulness of time had come, God tabernacled among men in the Person of His incarnate Son as “God was manifested in the flesh” (1 Tim. 3:16) and the Holy Son of God walked among men. In the future Kingdom Age the city of Jerusalem, the city of the great King (Matt. 5:35), will be named “The LORD is there” (Ezekiel 48:35) and “every pot in Jerusalem...shall be holiness unto the LORD” (Zech. 14:21).

Today in this present age, God is manifesting Himself in a unique body on this earth, a unique temple indwelt by the Holy Spirit (1 Cor. 3:16-17). There is glory in the Church (Eph. 3:21). Christ is in the midst of two or three or more gathered in His Name (Matt. 18:20). The Church is the “house of God” (1 Tim. 3:15), and when the Church functions in a godly way, even the unsaved will recognize that “God is in you of a truth” (1 Cor. 14:25).

God is There and Holy is That Place

1 Corinthians 14:18-25

Jacob spent the night in a barren place with a rock as a pillow, yet God was there. Here is the exclamation from the patriarch: “Surely the LORD is in this place, and I knew it not...How dreadful is this place! This is none other but the house of God (Bethel)” (Gen. 28:16-17). Moses was at Mt. Sinai with a flock of sheep when suddenly a burning bush caught his attention. The bush was burning with fire but was not consumed. God was in the bush and the ground around was holy (Exodus 3:1-5).

The tabernacle was constructed of ordinary materials. When it was finished, a cloud of glory covered the tent and at night it was illuminated by fire (Exodus 40:34-38). God manifested His holy presence in that place. Likewise, Solomon’s magnificent temple was just an ordinary building until God filled it with His holy presence (1 Kings 8:10-11).

When the fulness of time had come, God tabernacled among men in the Person of His incarnate Son as “God was manifested in the flesh” (1 Tim. 3:16) and the Holy Son of God walked among men. In the future Kingdom Age the city of Jerusalem, the city of the great King (Matt. 5:35), will be named “The LORD is there” (Ezekiel 48:35) and “every pot in Jerusalem...shall be holiness unto the LORD” (Zech. 14:21).

Today in this present age, God is manifesting Himself in a unique body on this earth, a unique temple indwelt by the Holy Spirit (1 Cor. 3:16-17). There is glory in the Church (Eph. 3:21). Christ is in the midst of two or three or more gathered in His Name (Matt. 18:20). The Church is the “house of God” (1 Tim. 3:15), and when the Church functions in a godly way, even the unsaved will recognize that “God is in you of a truth” (1 Cor. 14:25).