

Man's Sinful Ingratitude

Romans 1:17-25

Everything we have is given to us by our benevolent Creator: the air we breathe, the food we eat, the water we drink, the clothing we put on, etc. God makes His sun to rise on the evil and on the good, and sends rain on the righteous and on the unrighteous (Matt. 6:45). All men benefit from the goodness of the Lord, and it is only because of Him that we live and move and have our being (Acts 17:28). And yet man, in his depravity, refuses to honor God and give thanks for all He has bestowed: “When they knew God, they glorified Him not as God, neither were thankful, but became vain in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was darkened” (Rom. 1:21). They refused to honor God for who He is, and they refused to thank God for what He had done.

In the last days perilous times shall come, and one of the characteristics of that time will be that men will be “unthankful” (2 Tim. 3:2). How rare it is today to go to a public eating place and see people giving thanks for their food! The Creator who provides our daily sustenance is not acknowledged. In the Psalms the Lord gives this warning through David: “Bless the LORD, O my soul, and forget not all His benefits” (Psalm 103:2).

God wants us to constantly remember and be thankful for all blessings received from the Giver of every good and perfect gift. Sadly, the more we receive the more we tend to forget: “Lest when thou hast eaten and art full...and thy silver and thy gold is multiplied...then thine heart be lifted up and thou forget the LORD thy God” (Deut. 8:11-14). “Oh that men would praise [thank] the LORD for His goodness, and for His wonderful works to the children of men” (Psalm 107:8).

George Zeller, www.middletownbiblechurch.org

Man's Sinful Ingratitude

Romans 1:17-25

Everything we have is given to us by our benevolent Creator: the air we breathe, the food we eat, the water we drink, the clothing we put on, etc. God makes His sun to rise on the evil and on the good, and sends rain on the righteous and on the unrighteous (Matt. 6:45). All men benefit from the goodness of the Lord, and it is only because of Him that we live and move and have our being (Acts 17:28). And yet man, in his depravity, refuses to honor God and give thanks for all He has bestowed: “When they knew God, they glorified Him not as God, neither were thankful, but became vain in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was darkened” (Rom. 1:21). They refused to honor God for who He is, and they refused to thank God for what He had done.

In the last days perilous times shall come, and one of the characteristics of that time will be that men will be “unthankful” (2 Tim. 3:2). How rare it is today to go to a public eating place and see people giving thanks for their food! The Creator who provides our daily sustenance is not acknowledged. In the Psalms the Lord gives this warning through David: “Bless the LORD, O my soul, and forget not all His benefits” (Psalm 103:2).

God wants us to constantly remember and be thankful for all blessings received from the Giver of every good and perfect gift. Sadly, the more we receive the more we tend to forget: “Lest when thou hast eaten and art full...and thy silver and thy gold is multiplied...then thine heart be lifted up and thou forget the LORD thy God” (Deut. 8:11-14). “Oh that men would praise [thank] the LORD for His goodness, and for His wonderful works to the children of men” (Psalm 107:8).

George Zeller, www.middletownbiblechurch.org